\( \big(1)		offense if a circumstance giving $ 3156(a)(4).	and has been convicted of a federal offense stat g rise to federal jurisdiction had existed - that is an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in
(3)	a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-©, or comparable state or local offenses.  (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense.  (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the date of conviction release of the defendant from imprisonment for the offense described in finding (1).  (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.
Alternative Findings (A)  X (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense
	X for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 18: U.S.C. 801 et. seq
$\square$ (2)	2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assurthe appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.
Alternative Findings (B)
	There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.  There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.  The defendant has voluntarily consented to detention in this matter.
Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention  I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence a preponderance of the evidence that  As noted in the Alternative Findings above, the defendant has voluntarily consented to detention in this matter.
